For Sale

A quintessential character lifestyle and endless family appeal are on offer in this charming Queenslander resting on a 463sqm corner block. Opposite beautiful Finsbury Park and surrounded by gorgeous greenery, Enoggera Creek Bikeway and recreation spaces, the property promises a dream location only 12 minutes from the CBD. Raised and renovated into a picture-perfect abode, the two-storey design marries contemporary style with classic character details, including polished timber floors, high ceilings, VJ walls, breezeways, leadlight glass and ducted air-conditioning. A calming ambience fills the open living and dining area upstairs, which boasts a bright and airy layout, bay window and tranquil treetop views. The adjoining kitchen is perfect for preparing meals when friends arrive and showcases a sleek white aesthetic. Bi-fold doors effortlessly integrate the living space with the peaceful entertainer's deck, where you can relax and host guests as you soak in the blissful breezes and lush green outlooks. Family fun continues downstairs with a second living area and a secure yard nestled behind a picket fence. With Finsbury Park across the street, sports, games and parties can be enjoyed in the open air. The home has five bedrooms, three bathrooms and a double garage. Three bedrooms are upstairs, including the master with a walk-in robe and ensuite. The two downstairs bedrooms, which have private entry via French doors, can easily serve as home offices.
