Beautifully set within a picturesque private north-facing garden oasis, this utterly captivating double fronted Victorian residence's blend of period elegance and contemporary style delivers unbeatable inner urban family living with an incomparable sense of style, space and serenity. Behind an exceptionally broad frontage, high ceilings and Baltic pine floors define the arched central hall and generous sitting room with an open fire. Clerestory windows accentuate the scale and flow of light in the expansive open plan living and dining room fitted with a window seat, designer lighting and a gourmet kitchen appointed with stone benches, an Ilve oven and walk in pantry. Behind recessed sliders there is a cleverly concealed home office. Bi-fold doors open the living space to the gorgeous private landscaped garden surrounds with a large north-facing deck for al fresco dining. In two separate wings there are four generous double bedrooms with built in robes accompanied by two stylish bathrooms. In a tranquil pocket yet only moments to Chapel Street's vast array of restaurants and cafes, Windsor station, trams, elite schools, Prahran Market and Albert Park Lake, it includes fully fitted basement cellar, hydronic heating, RC/air-conditioning, laundry, auto gates and garage.
