

61 Horizon Street, Gillieston Heights, NSW 2321

Sold House

Wednesday, 23 August 2023

61 Horizon Street, Gillieston Heights, NSW 2321

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 3

Area: 700 m2

Type: House

Charlie Lund
0249342961

Tori Lund
0249342961

$860,000

For space and style, inside and out, with fabulous convenience to boot, this four-bedroom family home has few equals. Set on 700sqm, the 2012-built, single-level residence features several different garden areas set across wide lawns. There are two substantial, open-plan living and dining areas, including a modern kitchen with premium inclusions, with one flowing directly to gardens. Carpeted bedrooms in another wing boast mirrored built-ins with the grand master featuring a chic ensuite. To top it all off, you have a triple garage and Gillieston Heights Shops are just a seven-minute walk from the home, with Maitland and the Hunter Expressway nearby as well. - This chic 2012-built, four-bedroom Mirvac residence will tick every box for your family- The single-level brick abode boasts masses of space, style and convenience to enjoy- 700sqm of sweeping lawns and to the rear, there are several different garden areas- Plenty of parking options with a triple car garage with internal and drive-through access- Plus, side access gates, micro watering system to four separate areas of the gardens- Inside, this large abode is bursting with many premium inclusions, thoughtful designs - Every corner has been immaculately maintained with a natural, fresh colour scheme - From front porch, step down hallway to 37.6sqm open-plan area with garden scenery- Light, bright array is so appealing and ideal space for casual entertaining and dining- Alternatively, step from hallway or from main open-plan area to a formal living space- Overlooked by chandeliers and white plantation shutters, this room is stylish and chic - Back in your main open-plan area, we can't let you forget premium, practical kitchen- Island bench, a Smeg 5-burner gas cooktop, electric wall oven, Dishlex dishwasher- You can wine and dine indoors but outdoors, there is yet more great space to do so- Sliding glass doors reveal fantastic side patio, which stretches right around the home- Side patio is covered with remaining areas overlooking gardens all equally appealing- Along with wide lawns, the opposite side of house reveals lovely, small decked area- Ample secure space for kids to play and for you to create some private garden arrays- But back inside, more great style and space awaits in four light, sizeable bedrooms- At the rear of floorplan is substantial master bedroom with four-door mirrored built-ins- Parents will also appreciate stylish ensuite with an oversized shower, vanity and toilet- Bedroom 4 is in same wing as the master, features mirrored built-ins and ceiling fan- Bedrooms 2 and 3 are in nearby wing of the house and offer more mirrored built-ins- Stylish family bathroom is set between bedrooms with a separate bath and a shower- Daikin ducted air conditioning, Hills alarm system, Rheem continuous gas hot water - Stroll to shops and amenities, or drive five minutes to Maitland or Hunter Expressway Council Rates $2,475pa Water Rates $751pa