Embrace rural bliss with this enchanting property delivering absolute privacy on a sprawling 20 acres (approx.) of breathtaking grounds with sweeping rural vistas and monumental views of Mt. Macedon. A haven for horse enthusiasts, hobby farmers, and those who yearn for the serenity of a country lifestyle, it boasts excellent infrastructure including a 3-bay shed, 8 paddocks including 4 fenced horse paddocks, 2 stables, shelters with water troughs, loading ramp/cattle crush, chook pen, shedding, garage, and ample water supply with a dam, bore, and 4 water tanks with an approximate total capacity of 100,000 litres. Garden enthusiasts will relish the opportunity for self-sufficiency with fertile vegetable gardens teeming with garlic, broad beans, cabbage, strawberries, and more. An established olive grove, fig trees, and blossoming trees complete this agricultural wonderland. The welcoming traditional home offers a comfortable and warm ambience with a large kitchen, meals and living areas, plus a covered outdoor entertaining space and a wood-fuelled pizza oven. Three bedrooms with built-in robes are serviced by the well-appointed bathroom with a bath, shower, and a separate toilet with convenient dual access. Also includes modern amenities such as all-electric power, NBN connectivity, a wood-fuelled heater, split system heating/cooling, and ample parking. This magical hideaway offers the ultimate in privacy while being just a 10-minute drive away from Sunbury and Riddells Creek townships, freeway access, schools, and essential amenities, so you can enjoy the peace of a country lifestyle without sacrificing on convenience.
