Welcome Home to 61 Salisbury Drive, Nowra. A truly impressive bespoke custom restoration that stands out from the rest. The owners have lovingly created a haven of tranquillity and elegance, with clean and crisp aesthetics throughout, that beautifully highlight the home's iconic panoramic view of the stunning surrounding Shoalhaven landscape. Upon entering you will fall in love with the overall sense of air and space, with all living requirements situated on the second floor bathed completely in natural light, and offering views in every direction. Offering an open plan design to suit families of all sizes, 3 bedrooms and the main bathroom sit separately to the living areas. With the main bedroom offering a separate study/nursery. A fourth bedroom, 2nd bathroom, 2nd living area and a study can all be found on the ground floor. With storage aplenty on the ground floor, the home offers garaging for up to 3 cars and drive-thru access to the low-maintenance backyard. A sympathetic restoration, the owners have incorporated many of the home original attributes, whilst still including modern comforts. The home features newly laid timber look floors and plush carpets, expertly crafted wainscotting, extra height ceilings, original stained glass skylights and windows, and decorative architraves. This home truly is one-of-a-kind. It delivers low maintenance, sophisticated family perfection, and picture perfect postcard worthy views.
