Welcome to 61 Sherry Street! This lovingly renovated home is a breath of fresh air! An abundance of refined lifestyle features with miles of unique character flowing from start to finish. This home represents beauty and charm in spades. The Lifestyle: Embracing the Queensland climate and entertaining guests is something to behold for the new owners. Whether relaxing after a day's work or planning a party, this is the perfect platform for all seasons. The 9.5m X 4.5m sparkling in-ground pool is surrounded by beautiful established landscaping and accompanied by an undercover 9m X 6m recycled timber deck. The Living: A stylish kitchen fit for the most discerning home chef serves as the hub for the indoor living areas. Flanked by spacious dining and lounge rooms, the timber benchtops, ample cupboard space, huge walk-in pantry and country character offer plenty to make mealtimes enjoyable! The options for flexible living are multiple with an expansive media/rumpus room complete with TV projector and custom shelving caters for the teenagers and footy finals whilst the relaxing indoor patio is welcoming for all occasions and finished with recycled timbers offering an organic earthy tone. The Essentials: The master suite is private, separate and home to an elegant ensuite and significant wardrobe space. The remaining 3 bedrooms have fresh carpet, built in robes and are serviced by a large modern bathroom. The study provides options for a home office or hobby room and the addition of a 'secret' storage room is a bonus and helps keep your home tidy year-round.
