Located perfectly next to the Yarra river and in close to many of Melbourne's favourite attractions this well proportioned apartment is perfect for the owner occupier to move into. In immaculate condition with new floor boards and paint, the apartment has great features that include air conditioning, sleek stainless steel appliances, stone bench tops and built in desk or television stand. Coming with a private balcony overlooking the city the apartment has floor to ceiling windows that let natural light flood the apartment. With a great sized laundry and kitchen area the open plan design has a splendid feel to it. Another outstanding feature is the large bathroom with plenty of space and ample room for a laundry space. This great apartment is close to everything that Melbourne has to offer with close proximity to Southern cross, trams and Flinders st Station.
