With a federation home surrounded by productive gardens and 33 acres of excellent farm land, this property could be your perfect answer to your hobby farm dreams. Being very close to the Penguin town boundary it is handy to all of the wonderful things that Penguin has to offer. Take in the beaches, cafes, specialty shops and the amazing sporting precinct. The schools are great and with the City of Burnie less than 15 minutes away. The home maintains many of its federations features and has been re-clad and has a colorbond roof. Plenty of shedding and water for grazing stock. Contact us for your private inspection.
