This meticulously maintained, luminous apartment gracefully perched on the 6th floor is a rare find. This residence bathes in natural light, courtesy of its floor-to-ceiling windows, offering captivating vistas of Melbourne's Southeast, including the picturesque Wesley College grounds. As a privileged resident of this building, you'll relish the convenience of round-the-clock concierge services. The exquisite white kitchen is stylish and functional, boasting an integrated fridge and top-of-the-line Miele appliances, including a dishwasher. The master bedroom is a serene haven, featuring expansive glass windows that maximize the panoramic view and offer ample storage with built-in robes. A generous study/office could also double as a guest room directly off the main living area. A luxurious bathroom with a shower, toilet, single vanity, and a generously sized mirror serves the apartment's needs. For added convenience, the European laundry, complete with a washing machine and a clothes dryer, is discreetly tucked away within the bathroom. One of the standout features of this residence is the access it provides to the 8th-floor fitness facilities, which include a pool, spa, steam room, sauna, and a dedicated massage room and gym. Additionally, the tranquil gardens on the ground floor offer a serene retreat, while a well-appointed library provides a peaceful space for leisurely reading. With tram services right at your doorstep, this location is simply unbeatable. You'll find yourself within easy reach of Melbourne's vibrant CBD, Albert Park Lake, Fawkner Park, the Royal Botanical Gardens, and various restaurants and bars in St Kilda, Greville Street, and Chapel Street. This apartment is the epitome of urban living, a city pad at the doorstep of one of the world's most livable cities.
