Expressions of interest

The Perth Property Co. is thrilled to present 61A May Street, Bayswater. A family oasis comprising of four bedrooms, two bathrooms, this well-crafted home effortlessly spans a handy 641sqm green title rear lot with a below ground swimming pool in a family friendly neighbourhood that's close to the Bayswater town site and new station. Built in 1995, and with space, style, and modernity in abundance, this home is bright and welcoming and packed with the necessary conveniences us West Aussies crave in order to thrive and grow! Your first discovery at 61A May Street is the private and secure front yard that plays host to an affable lawned area with fruit trees, decked poolside pavilion and glorious below ground swimming pool. Moving through the yard and into the home you arrive at a lounge space that makes for a great theatre or rumpus room. Nearby is a main bedroom with walk-in robe and convenient ensuite offering shower, vanity, and WC. Further into the home and you arrive at an expansive kitchen-dining-living zone. As well as a richness of space, this zone offers a modern kitchen with ample bench space, breakfast bar, tiled splash-back, gas cooktop, underbench oven, dual draw dishwasher, and a big pantry and fridge recess. The dining-living space is nice and comfy and provides adequate room for a family dining table and snug sofas. Glass sliding doors open to a huge covered and paved alfresco, the double garage can be accessed from this area too. Off the living zone you find the three further bedrooms along the hall. There is a big laundry with convenient built in cabinetry and access to the yard, plus a separate WC and family bathroom with combined shower and bath. The home's conveniences don't end there either; there is timber floors to living areas, new carpets to bedrooms, ducted RC air-conditioning, modern downlights, and white timber blinds. Externally the features include a big double remote garage with room for storage, covered alfresco, low maintenance easy-care gardens, and that oh so glorious pool. There is plenty to love about this oasis on May Street. So don't delay, call Nadija (0417 903 990) or Dan (0422 422 216) to view this home.
