In an area surrounded by beautiful homes, this immaculate low-set rendered brick and tile home underpinned by 905m² is hitting the market for the first time in 22 years. From the moment you walk through the door it will feel like home, all you need to do is unpack your bags and you can be at the Mooloolaba beach within 15 minutes. With four bedrooms and two bathrooms, a formal lounge and dining area, spacious and open plan kitchen and living area overlooking a peaceful landscaped garden, this home will suit families, downsizers and investors all looking to secure their new home in a blue-chip location. Designed to bring the flow of the inside with the outside areas, allowing the home to flood with warm natural light and cool breezes all year round. Spanning the back of the house is a covered patio, perfect for family events and casual dining as you relax and enjoy the quietness this location offers. The master suite with ensuite, walk-in robe and private patio has great separation from the remaining three bedrooms and bathroom. All bedrooms have built-in cupboards and ceiling fans, ducted air-conditioning, and plantation shutters in three bedrooms. Additional features include: Security screens and doors throughout Ducted air-conditioning and ceiling fans Remote controlled double garage Fully fenced yard Tile roof recently repointed and sprayed Solar System When location is everything, 62 Jingellic Drive will be high on your list. In a short drive you are at the Matthew Flinders Collage, Sunshine Coast University, Buderim Village, Buderim Private Hospital, Woolworths Mountain Creek, Headland Golf Club and access to the Sunshine Motorway and Bruce Highway couldn't be easier!
