Privately tucked away from the street and nestled into its 3096sqm allotment, this commanding, estate style home is the ultimate in lifestyle properties. Upon entry, the grandeur of the home becomes obvious. The home features four bedrooms plus a separate study, the ideal work from home space, or could easily be utilised as a fifth bedroom. The master suite is suitably named with its size, rolling green views, walk in robe and ensuite. To the far end of the home, the remaining bedrooms all come with built in wardrobes and ceiling fans whilst being strategically positioned away from the rest of the home. The separate media room is the ideal place for the kids to enjoy movie night whilst the parents can retreat to the family room providing ideal separation. The central kitchen has ample bench and cupboard space and comes with a gas cooktop, electric oven and dishwasher and flows through the spacious dining area making it a perfect interactive family space. The thoughtful design of the home continues with the expansive sandstone alfresco area, with a perfect northerly aspect, this is the perfect place to entertain or to simply relax with a book or a quiet drink whilst taking in the uninterrupted rural backdrop. For the cooler months, the purpose built fire pit is ideal for sitting around while stargazing. The rear yard with side access, is a blank canvas for the avid gardener and provides unlimited scope for further improvements such as inground pool or large shedding. The home is completed with Solar Hot Water, double remote garage and garden shed. Positioned just a short drive to the EastPoint Shopping Village, 30 minutes to the coast and an hour and a half to the Gold Coast.
