All the hard work has been done with this well presented three bedroom home in North Shepparton. Renovations have already been completed for you including fresh, neutral paint, modern floor coverings and blinds throughout as well as a new kitchen and bathroom. Minutes from GV Health and a multitude of education and sporting facilities, this property is ideally located. Fairleys IGA supermarket and plenty of takeaway food options are also very close by. As you enter the home you step into the well sized living area which lets in plenty of natural light and boasts a new split system which will keep the occupants comfortable in both summer and winter. The tastefully decorated kitchen has gas cooking and great cupboard storage including full height pantry space. A generously sized rear yard provides plenty of space for kids or pets to run around in securely. All set on a 696m² block. Chat to Shawn Newby today about viewing this great property on 0437 646 895.
