Time to make the move and get into your own home. This solid townhouse is ready and waiting for the next person to add their touch. The property has been freshly painted and had new carpet installed throughout. The kitchen has seen better days and could do with improving. Upstairs there is a central bathroom consisting of shower, toilet and vanity. Both bedrooms are carpeted with built in robes. This townhouse is complete with a great private courtyard at rear with stunning range views. Access to the luscious, maintained lawns is easy via a gate. The complex has recently had automated gates installed. Views of the ranges are stunning and surrounded by lawn. This townhouse is at the end so only having one adjoining neighbour is a bonus. Best of all the undercover parking is in front of the home. Why not take advantage of this great price and make this your home and enjoy all the features on offer? Call Lindsay now for your inspection!
