Nestled upon a sprawling 2.47 acres allotment of landscaped greenery, with stunning rural and water views, sits an impressive family estate filled with contemporary comfort and expansive luxury living in Acton Park. The extensive home exudes elegance, where innovative design together with modern finishes create a streamlined and relaxed retreat. Sun-filled, open-plan living and dining features rich polished timber flooring, and plush carpet, punctuated by a central wood heater. Further along, a media room provides additional living space, ideal for family movie nights. The well-designed kitchen is ultra-spacious, and comes fully equipped with high-end appliances, ample storage, including a butler's pantry, and stone bench tops. An extra-large island bench offers the perfect spot to gather for casual meals. Sumptuous accommodation comprises of four generous bedrooms. Half are inclusive of built-in wardrobes, while the others contain walk-in dressing rooms and stylish en-suites, one designed for two. Each of the bedrooms enjoy abundant natural light and delightful pastoral views. The main bathroom servicing the home is sophisticated in style, with neutral floor-to-ceiling tiles, and matte black fittings and fixtures. There's a deep bath, separate shower, vanity, and a toilet, along with a separate powder room. Entertaining areas are seemingly endless, with a tiled sheltered terrace and deck seamlessly transitioning indoor living out from the master suite, and the main living area. Another timber deck extends from the dining room, where an alfresco space awaits within the secluded backyard sanctuary. The spectacular, fully fenced grounds feature manicured hedges, native plants, and established trees, along with well-maintained lawns. Within the property, there is a large workshop which also incorporates a home office. There are two secure garages, one with internal access, and sheltered off-street parking direct to the front door within the portico. With no expense spared to create a home filled with rustic elegance and modern-day comfort, this expansive estate in the heart of semi-rural Acton Park provides a superior lifestyle filled with the utmost luxury and upscale living.
