

63 Collins Parade, Sorrento, VIC, 3943

Sold House

Wednesday, 19 July 2023

63 Collins Parade, Sorrento, VIC, 3943

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 2

Type: House

Mark Prentice

'St Thomas'

Sitting proudly on the ridge is this striking architecturally designed home and ultimate entertainer. With high vaulted ceilings and curved roofs this light filled residence is the perfect place to seek sanctuary and enjoy the space and privacy with family and friends. Featuring a formal entry through to the main living-dining-lounge area with polished floor boards, gas log fire, ducted heating, cooling split and extensive glazing. The main living flows to the outdoor alfresco and bbq area that is perfect for afternoon lunches, whilst watching the kids and grand kids have hit of tennis or cricket on the full size mod grass tennis court. Also featuring downstairs is 3 bedrooms with built in robes, a full bathroom, separate laundry and powder room. Upstairs features a 2nd living area and balcony, perfect for watching the sunsets over the ocean reserve to the west, and a spacious master bedroom with walk in robe and ensuite. Further features are the double lock up garage and ample off street guest parking, sprinkler system and fully fenced. Set within a short stroll of the beautiful 'Tideways' beach and the Sorrento Sailing and Couta Boat Club through the Tuckey Track, this striking property offers the sanctuary we all desire and the position we all envy.