

63 Corunna Road, Stanmore, NSW 2048

CobdenHayson.

Sold House

Friday, 29 March 2024

63 Corunna Road, Stanmore, NSW 2048

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 1

Area: 236 m2

Type: House

David Carrozza
0411296796

Jonathan Hammond
0425252686

Contact agent

A light-filled modern haven set behind a charming brick facade, this transformed Federation residence will impress with its assured sense of style, quality design and emphasis on versatile in/outdoor living. This exceptional lifestyle property was a finalist in the prestigious Marrickville Medal for Conservation award and offers an ultra-private environment that blends its flowing multi-level layout with peaceful outdoor areas to provide a relaxed retreat that's perfect for entertaining or escaping the fast pace of city life. All of this is complemented by a premium Stanmore setting in a boutique street in the heart of the inner west, with top-quality schools, transport and shopping amenities all a stroll away- A free-flowing layout featuring a light-filled open plan living area- Soaring double-height ceilings, skylights and heated concrete floors- An easy interaction with a Vergola-covered entertainment patio- A private back garden with lawn, shed and secure off-street car space- Showpiece chef's kitchen with island bench and sleek top end appliances- Upper-level master retreat with 2nd bedroom and a stylish bathroom - Air-conditioning and ceiling fans throughout and custom wardrobes - A separate mezzanine home office plus a butler's pantry with laundry- Easy access to lifestyle amenities in Newtown, Enmore and Annandale