This exquisite federation inspired residence represents the epitome of luxury living. Every detail of this opulent home has been meticulously designed to create a harmonious blend of classic elegance and modern comfort. This captivating residence immediately impresses with its gracious proportions and impeccable presentation. A generous and welcoming entrance introduces an elegant and functional floorplan. To the left you are greeted by the formal sitting room, complete with feature fireplace, opposite you will find the large study, which can easily be converted into another bedroom if desired. Impressively proportioned, the master bedroom enjoys a luxurious ensuite with his and hers vanity, as well as walk-in-robe. Meanwhile, the remaining three bedrooms are generously appointed with large built-in robes and an abundance of natural light and are serviced by the pristine family bathroom. The gracious light-filled living and dining areas are served by a stunning gourmet kitchen appointed with stone benches, high end appliances, bespoke cabinetry, and butler's pantry. Adjoined is a generous rumpus room, with the finest of finishes it is an incredible family space, offering the versatility to create a formal theatre room, teenagers retreat or games room, whilst overlooking the rear yard and huge undercover alfresco. This residence is certain to captivate with added features including an oversized double remote garage with rear roller door, perfect for tradies, picturesque, landscaped gardens, an abundance of storage options, evaporative cooling, picture rails, feature lighting, classic period attributes including ornate cornices in support and flowing engineered timber flooring throughout the home. A family home that retains significant period character, radiating the romance of a bygone era and provides rewarding options for adding contemporary elements when the mood or the moment arrives, the charm of this property spans the past, the present and the future. Located in the Park Central Estate in Officer, close to all amenities and just a short drive to the M1 freeway, Officer Train Station, Rix Road Plaza, One Centre Square and Arena Parade Shopping Centre. There are also several prestigious schools nearby, plus parks, walking tracks and public transport options. This masterpiece is not just a house, it's an embodiment of luxury and timeless elegance. It's a sanctuary where every comfort and convenience has been considered, a place where cherished memories are waiting to be created.
