

63 McKendry Drive, Cameron Park, NSW 2285

Sold Townhouse

Friday, 25 August 2023

63 McKendry Drive, Cameron Park, NSW 2285

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 2

Type: Townhouse

Bec Stunell

0240381444

$740,000

This impeccably designed townhouse, constructed less than 2 years ago, exudes a modern and welcoming ambiance. Nestled within the newly developed Cameron Grove estate, the property boasts stunning views of lush bushland, offering a serene and family-friendly atmosphere. Step inside and be greeted by a spacious and light-filled interior, seamlessly connecting two ground level living areas to a private, paved courtyard - an ideal space for entertaining and unwinding. The upper level showcases three generously-sized bedrooms, complete with an ensuite and main bathroom, while the ground level features a stylish kitchen and convenient WC. Additional highlights include a single garage, carport doubling as an outdoor entertaining area, and a manageable 253sqm. parcel with a captivating bushland outlook. With its contemporary design, premium finishes, and strategic location, this townhouse presents an excellent investment opportunity with potential rental income ranging from $620 - $650 per week. Built by RIBA Homes, this property epitomizes elegance and functionality, with thoughtful details throughout, including roller blinds, ample storage, and ducted AC for year-round comfort. Situated in close proximity to schools, parks, and major motorways, and within walking distance to Cameron Park Plaza, this townhouse offers convenience and accessibility. Embrace a modern lifestyle in this superbly located home, where style and comfort seamlessly blend together.