Step into a world of comfort and class with this splendid abode at 63 Narang Street, East Maitland, NSW, 2323. Spanning an impressive 582 square metres of prime land, this exquisite property is tailor-made for discerning investors, growing families and eager first home buyers alike. Upon entry, you're greeted by an alluring open-planned living, dining, and kitchen area that serves as the heart of the home. Here, the fusion of contemporary floorboards and plush carpet underfoot sets the stage for a home that's both stylish and inviting. The living space is climate-controlled for year-round comfort thanks to a split-system A/C, ensuring that this haven is a retreat regardless of the season. Culinary enthusiasts will be enamoured with the chef's kitchen, which boasts high-end appliances, sophisticated fittings, and abundant storage options. It's a space designed for both casual family meals and grander entertaining. Accommodation needs are exceeded with four generously-sized bedrooms, each presenting built-in robes, carpeted flooring, and ceiling fans for personal comfort. The expansive backyard, complete with an undercover area, offers a canvas for garden enthusiasts and a safe play haven for the little ones. For the social butterfly, the huge open entertaining area downstairs is a showstopper, complete with its own bar, perfect for hosting memorable gatherings or simply enjoying the company of friends and family. Seize the opportunity to make 63 Narang Street your very own sanctuary, where every detail culminates in creating not just a house, but a home filled with potential and promise.
