Immerse yourself in nature in the perfect fishing spot on your new property where the Leven River and Preston Creek meet. This permanent spring-fed freshwater creek meanders through the property, creating a tranquil oasis and private riverbank relaxation. Enjoy two charming holiday shacks equipped with off-grid solar power/battery. While cultivating your own sustainable lifestyle, you can create a self-sufficient vegetable garden and chicken yard. Fenced animal enclosures provide ample space for livestock or your furry friends, and an abundance of firewood/milling logs offers the potential for additional income. Take advantage of the storage space in shipping containers and the workshop area for your projects. The property features a 40,000-liter water tank that gravity-feeds the shacks, yards, greenhouse, gardens, and future building site. Experience ultimate relaxation under the stars in a stunning outdoor fire bath house with a timber frame. Additionally, there is a cleared and fenced building site that awaits your dream home. This property is located on a major tourist route, making it ideal for potential business ventures. Additionally, there is already an income-generating RV camping site on Hip Camp.
