

64/2 Brisbane Street, Surry Hills, NSW 2010

CENTURY 21

Sold Apartment

Friday, 8 September 2023

64/2 Brisbane Street, Surry Hills, NSW 2010

Bedrooms: 1

Bathrooms: 1

Parkings: 1

Type: Apartment

$835,000

Peacefully tucked away in a coveted security complex, yet within footsteps of Sydney's most vibrant entertainment, dining, and nightlife precincts, this generously proportioned residence delivers low-maintenance living and offers a tranquil, light-filled ambience. Whether it's a cafe breakfast, morning jog through Hyde Park, or evening cocktails, residents can take advantage of Sydney's best from this premium city fringe location. Beyond the secure entry residents are greeted by the glistening complex pool and sun-soaked pool deck, providing a serene, resort-like environment amongst an urban locale. Inside the apartment is privately set yet effortlessly connects to the city skyline backdrop and intimate streetscape. Large living areas and sleeping quarters both with high ceilings, creating a relaxed and spacious atmosphere. The well-equipped kitchen includes gas cooking, stone bench-tops, a dishwasher, and an abundance of cupboard space.* Oversized internals feature abundant storage, high ceilings, timber floors, and neutral tones* An extension of the living areas, the tiled balcony connects the apartment and city beyond* Abundant space for entertaining or relaxing with ample room for furniture and greenery* Bathroom comprises a bath and a full laundry cupboard inclusive of wash tub and dryer* Quality security complex features a well-equipped gym, pool, and onsite management* Prime location offering the best in city fringe living or ideal high demand investment