A home of distinction showcasing incredible Yarra Valley views, comprises five sunlit bedrooms, three distinct living areas, wonderful outdoor entertaining and exceptional shedding and parking on an elevated 2071m² (approx.) landscaped block. Elegant formal living and dining are covered with an expansive lounge taking in stunning views and separate dining room (would make a great theatre room or 5th bedroom) with French doors to a shady veranda circling the home. A casual living zone includes family room warmed by wood heater, well appointed kitchen with stunning Italian Fratelli Onofri freestanding stove as centre point along with Miele dishwasher and abundant storage, and dining bay with French doors extending to the outdoors. Wake to stunning views to the north and east front the elegant upstairs master suite with indulgent ensuite complete with double shower and vanity and dressing room of your dreams. A further three robed bedrooms, family bathroom, separate toilet and study area are positioned on the upper level with a third bathroom and laundry on the ground floor. A huge deck offering year-round outdoor living and entertaining comes complete with stove. Further features that enhance the home include ducted heating, ducted cooling, internal double garage, huge four car garage with workshop and mezzanine storage and vast expanse of parking ideal for a tradie. High set with far reaching views, the home is conveniently located just a short car trip from central Lilydale complete with every amenity including train station, cafes, Lilydale Marketplace and schools.
