Positioned on an elevated corner allotment just a leisurely stroll from the Lonsdale Golf Club, this quintessential 1960's beach house is a true gem of the coastal lifestyle. Adorned with polished timber floorboards and an open fireplace, the light-filled living room strikes the perfect balance between coastal charm and contemporary comfort. Overlooking the vibrant yard, you can bask in the warmth of northern sun that floods through the large windows and illuminates every inch of the space. The well-equipped kitchen boasts a servery which seamlessly connects to the dining area. Enjoy a harmonious fusion of indoor and outdoor living with direct access to an expansive entertaining deck and BBQ area. This is the ideal space to host friends and family all-year round with the mutual benefit of sunlight from the north and protection from the established greenery. The master bedroom is a retreat of its own with built-in robes for ample storage. Two additional bedrooms ensure there's room for everyone, making this home perfect for both families and guests. The three bedrooms are serviced by two central bathrooms for convenience. A free-standing dwelling adds versatility to the property. Serving as the ideal space for an office, studio, private retreat or sleep-out—it is a perfect haven for those who work from home, or teenagers and guests who are seeking their own space. Leave your car and grab your golf clubs for a day on the green at the nearby Lonsdale Golf Club or take a short stroll to the Point Lonsdale Front Beach, Back Beach, and Shopping Village. The ultimate coastal lifestyle beckons from your doorstep.
