If you're looking for a home with character and charm, this enchanting 3-bedroom weatherboard home built in 1940 has an abundance of both. Appealing to a range of buyers, whether you're seeking a new family residence, a first home or you're downsizing, it would also make a fantastic investment for holiday or long term rental. The impeccably maintained home showcases period style with polished timber floorboards and high ceilings throughout, elegant wallpaper, timber panelling, plus built-in cabinetry and robes, and also includes ceiling fans and RC/AC. A landscaped garden welcomes you to the elevated home, with a driveway leading to a single garage. Upon entry, enjoy the tranquil Beauty Park view from the sunlit front sitting room and the spacious adjacent living/dining room which opens to a covered porch. A serving hatch opens to the kitchen with abundant storage, freestanding oven/gas cooktop, and a dishwasher. The hallway provides ample storage and accesses the bathroom with shower, vanity and toilet, and laundry, finishing in a bright sunroom which includes a 2nd toilet and access to the backyard. This is laid out with veggie beds, and a ramp to the upper section where you can relax next to the peaceful duckpond. Accommodation comprises 3 appealing bedrooms, all with built-in cabinetry and robes, including the master with striking Art Deco style ceiling. In the coveted Frankston High School zone, the home is a short walk to beautiful Frankston beach, cafés, Bayside shopping, train station, bus stops, and PARC.
