GLENGARRY is positioned in the heart of Echuca and within walking distance to all facilities. Set on a corner allotment the home itself offers a modern kitchen, formal dining area, formal lounge room and a large study/rumpus room which could be converted into whatever your dreams desire. The master bedroom has an ensuite and there is also a central bathroom for the rest of the family. There is plenty of space for you to add your own touches and style to create the home of your dreams. Ducted heating and cooling plus a gas log fire will ensure your comfort no matter the season. There is also a private rear yard that boasts a lovely garden and the single carport has an electric gate for ease of entry. First time offered to the marketplace don't miss your opportunity to secure a property in Echuca's most prestigious location.
