Situated half an hour west of Tenterfield this 51 acre property is the perfect lifestyle property, your very own private national park. A rural getaway where you can enjoy incredible privacy, the block itself is big enough that you can enjoy extensive bushwalking, while being treated to the sight of abundant native wildlife and fantastic and diverse birdwatching. The brick one bedroom cottage provides accommodation for the getaway with commanding views, the ultimate weekender; where you can enjoy company of your choice, spend happy hours exploring some of the region's most beautiful country, and go to bed at night with only the stars and the sounds of the bush to lull you to sleep. A new 24V Solar System recently installed provides off grid power, water storage and extra accommodation independent of the cottage is available. This Mountain Creek lifestyle property is offered for genuine sale, we are looking for the next wildlife warrior or stress free lifestyle seeker.
