This amazing lifestyle property is located in a tranquil and private position just 10 minutes drive from the city of Burnie. The 1989 built double story residence is standing on approx. 9.9 hectares (24.4 acres) of which approx. 1.7 hectares is grassland and the remainder natural bush with a spring fed dam and Chasm Creek running through the property. This amazingly unique 5 bedroom home that features many of Tasmania's famous timbers has great living space including huge lounge, formal dining, country style kitchen, family room, 4th & 5th bedrooms, main bathroom, laundry and 2nd toilet on the lower level. Upstairs you will love the master bedroom/parents retreat, including private balcony, en-suite, good size walk-in robe, plus sitting room and 3rd & 4th bedrooms. The home is surrounded with beautifully maintained gardens, excellent fencing and has an abundance of tank water for home and gardens. There is also a double garage, workshop, rumpus/hobby room, a 3 bay Dutch barn which will cater for all your storage requirements, plus 37 solar panels. You will also enjoy the amazing array of wildlife/birdlife you will encounter whilst venturing through the natural bush on the property with a couple of excellent sites to setup camp with family & friends if you so desire.
