Located in the peaceful coastal town of Port Macdonnell, this stunning 2-story, 4-bedroom home is the perfect beach getaway. Featuring stunning sea views and fantastic natural light, this beautifully maintained home offers stylish chic decor and a laidback, beach-house feel. Whether you are looking for a full-time residence or a beach house for the holidays, this home is well-situated to make the most of everything this beautiful little town has to offer. Close to local dining options & amenities as well as the iconic jetty & foreshore area, it's easy to imagine long hot summer days spent fishing, swimming and dining with friends. With very generously sized bedrooms and living areas, this home has plenty of space to accommodate family and entertain guests, both indoors and outside on the timber deck or upstairs balcony. With so many spacious & versatile spaces available, this property is also perfect for AirBnB and has been previously operated with excellent 5 star results. The property itself is set well back from the road behind high privacy fencing, with a large low-maintenance parking area for boats and cars available. Sheltered parking is also available with a single carport and single garage attached to either end of the main structure. Stepping inside the home, you'll immediately feel relaxed and at home with your beach surroundings, with white-washed timber panelling, rattan light fixtures, huge sea-view windows and timber-look flooring all combining to create that classic coastal vibe. Entrance is via a small hallway, with the staircase to the master bedroom located just to the right. This upstairs bedroom is a major highlight of the home, with its own kitchenette/bar and a stunning fully-enclosed balcony that's perfect for relaxing year-round. With 360 degree views, this upstairs area feels self-contained, romantic and more than a touch luxurious. Downstairs, a generous second bedroom with built-in desk and wardrobes is also located at this end of the house. Heading further into the home, you'll reach the central kitchen and dining area, featuring a well-equipped kitchen with electric cooking, timber bench tops, a dishwasher and a slow-combustion fireplace in the dedicated dining room. From here the house opens up via a beautiful set of double french doors, leading into a second living area with reverse cycle air-conditioning, extra room for dining and a compact sink for preparing the days catch. A second set of french doors leads out onto a sunny wooden deck. Having both sets of doors open transforms this downstairs area into a huge and dynamic space that's absolutely perfect for entertaining guests. A third living area is located just behind here, with the final two bedrooms just adjacent, making this a perfect area for teenagers or kids to unwind. Finally, the luxurious central bathroom is a highlight of this home. With a vanity, toilet, huge shower and an extra-spacious spa bath with jets, this is the perfect place to unwind from the days adventures. A separate laundry area offers a convenient second toilet, with a small personal office located just next door. Everything about this spacious and practical property combines to create the perfect environment for living a relaxing, laidback lifestyle in harmony with the peaceful coastal locale around you.
