Discover the potential of 64 Nyes Crescent, Buderim, where the only limit is your imagination. Situated on a large, elevated corner block on Buderim's Eastern escarpment, this property not only offers a generous parcel of land with ocean glimpses but also presents a perfect blank canvas ripe for a reno, or perhaps your chance to start afresh and create your dream abode. The 830sqm parcel of land is gently sloping & has been terraced & landscaped to create a really usable and attractive yard. The original & cute home features polished hardwood timber floors, a galley kitchen offering an impressive outlook, plus views and a cozy brick fireplace. This home is perfect for those seeking classic charm with great bones and enormous potential for the future....

- Expansive 830 sqm allotment with ocean glimpses (a 2nd level would provide broad ocean views)
- Neat & tidy home with great bones that's easily livable or rentable
- Original polished hardwood timber floors and a cozy brick fireplace
- Further two multipurpose rooms + bathroom have been built in to the former garage space
- Terraced, landscaped yard, fenced with side access
- Convenient single-level living with no steps
- Easy access to nearby schools & shops, 10 mins from our famous coast beaches
