

64 Scenic Crescent, Albion Park, NSW 2527

Sold House

Saturday, 24 February 2024

64 Scenic Crescent, Albion Park, NSW 2527

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 1

Area: 558 m2

Type: House

Ben Linnehan

$840,000

Picturesque frontage boasting expansive views, this remarkable home redefines comfort effortlessly. Positioned in a premium location near Regal Heights' shops, cafes, and services, and just minutes away from schools and Albion Park town center. This quality brick and tile residence offers four generously sized bedrooms. Three with built-ins, a spacious walk-in robe in the master suite and the third bedroom includes an ensuite, catering perfectly to teenagers or guests. The well-appointed kitchen, equipped with stainless steel appliances and a breakfast bar, seamlessly flows to the open plan dining area, featuring a cozy woodfire heater for winter warmth. The modern main bathroom, updated with a timber vanity and a large freestanding bathtub, offers a luxurious retreat. Unwind and soak in the breathtaking views from the separate lounge room or the sun-drenched front porch. Additional features include solar panels & skylights for abundant natural light. Step outside to discover a spacious courtyard, ideal for year-round entertaining, and a sprawling grassy yard, perfect for children and pets to play. single lock-up garage with internal access. This harmonious blend of indoor and outdoor spaces epitomizes comfortable living at its finest. Contact Ben Linnehan 0414 563 113 for more information or to arrange an inspection.