On a sprawling corner site this gracious brick Californian Bungalow with a side drive has long been in the hands of the same family, cherished and maintained with loving care. Its charming period features, from intricate leadlight windows to soaring ceilings, tell a story of a bygone era meticulously preserved. Immediately comfortable it offers exceptional opportunities for renovation and extension or further redevelopment subject to Council approval. Warm and inviting, the wide central hallway flows to three spacious bedrooms, a formal lounge, central bathroom, study or fourth bedroom and a north facing kitchen and dining area overlooking the garden. Outside enjoy the lush, established gardens that wrap around the property, offering a serene oasis and a perfect backdrop for both relaxation and entertainment. Other highlights include gas ducted heating, separate laundry with second shower, storage, shed and garage. On the edge of the Oakhill Estate, it is a short walk to High Street buses, Broadway and Edwardes Street retail precincts, Reservoir Station, local parks, and it is only moments further to schools and Preston Market.
