Nestled on a magnificent treelined street in the heart of central Albury, this classic Victorian-style red brick residence stands as a testament to timeless grandeur and historic charm, harmoniously paired with contemporary luxuries. Elegance unfurls at every turn in this beautiful home, where a rich narrative of history and sophistication beckons. The facade, adorned with classic red brick, boasts a stately bull-nosed veranda overlooking meticulously landscaped gardens. Ornate cornices, intricate detailing, and an inviting entryway instill a deep sense of nostalgia, whilst indulging in modern conveniences. Within these hallowed walls, the interior unfolds into a luminous sanctuary of generous proportions. Towering ceilings, exquisite fireplaces, and the resplendent original hardwood floors bestow an aura of aristocratic splendour, all the while preserving the home's cherished historical legacy. A thoughtfully designed layout seamlessly interlaces open plan living spaces, offering versatility for both relaxation and extravagant gatherings. The heart of this magnificent dwelling is the open-plan kitchen, where classic aesthetics meet modern functionality. Featuring modern appliances and a generous benchtop it guarantees to become the centre for family and social gatherings alike. A separate formal lounge provides quiet and solace, ideal for quiet reflection at the end of the day. Multiple bedrooms, two with spacious robes and built-in storage, are attended to by bathrooms featuring tessellated tiling, a testament to comfort and practicality. The master suite, separately situated for privacy and retreat is more than comfortably serviced by an ensuite featuring a claw-foot bath. Every room pays homage to the home's rich heritage, meticulously preserved to retain its distinctive character. Outdoors, an enchanting private haven beckons featuring well-established trees offering relaxed al fresco living. The meticulously landscaped gardens and a charming patio area provide a serene escape, perfect for savouring morning coffee or hosting intimate gatherings. At the rear of the property, part of an historic foundry still remains. Winzer Plaster Foundry established in this location manufactured ceiling roses and cornices that were sold to properties in the local region. This 9 x 9 metre shed is powered with three phase power and is still adorned by original windows. This spacious shed is ideal for vehicle storage along with room for a workshop, affording both functionality and security. Positioned in the heart of Albury, this residence grants unrivalled access to nearby amenities, esteemed schools, and the opportunity to explore the vibrant local boutiques, cafes, and parks that make Albury an esteemed and sought-after destination. Key Features: • Grandeur on a 765sqm (approx.) canvas • Four bedrooms • Two living areas • Ducted gas heating and evaporative cooling • Rear lane access to garaging for added convenience
