Buyers, a once in a generation opportunity has presented itself to secure over an acre of prime Olde Berwick Real Estate. An iconic modernist home designed by renowned architect Robin Boyd is positioned in arguably Berwick's most iconic street. This 1970's residence represents an opportunity that is highly sought yet never seen in the Berwick Marketplace. Perfect for a grand family home or subdivision (S.T.C.A), the options are endless, and the potential is limitless. This is where your dream can come to life. The existing home is substantial, with solid bones and modern floorplan, add your own twist to this generous residence. Featuring multiple living rooms, three bathrooms and a powder room, large kitchen, further lounge and study area which can easily double as a 4th and 5th bedroom, but most importantly the scenic vistas that the home very cleverly captures at every turn. Moving outside the entertainers dream. The recently refurbished pool area makes summer even better. You can enjoy the kids playing whilst taking in the striking views across the countryside. Enjoying the acreage lifestyle in Casey usually requires a car to get to most destinations. Forget any notion of that idea here with Berwick Village & Beaconsfield Village walking distance and the best schools in the district are minutes away. The Monash Freeway and public transport are also just around the corner. Create the dream and secure this opportunity before it is gone.
