With a lightwell that floods this tri-level home in natural light and a rooftop terrace offering fabulous city views, this three bedroom two bathroom townhouse is an inner-city gem. Rothe Lowman designed and part of the award winning 'The Barkly' development, this substantial home showcasing timeless modern design features hardwood floors and black framed windows in open plan living, where stone counters and Smeg appliances feature in a stylishly appointed kitchen. The rooftop terrace is the place to relax and entertain. Big enough to cater for the largest gathering it takes in fabulous city views. With a bedroom on every floor, top floor master with an ensuite, heating/cooling, Euro laundry and double tandem garage with internal entry, this home in a premier location is zoned to Princes Hill, central to Lygon Street and Sydney Road, near Princes Park and Jewell Station.
