

65 Citriadora Drive, Ewingsdale, NSW 2481

Other For Sale

Wednesday, 6 December 2023

65 Citriadora Drive, Ewingsdale, NSW 2481

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 4

Area: 43 m2

Type: Other

James McCowan
0418800400

David Medina

Expressions of Interest

Step into a world of timeless beauty with this Elegantly Appointed 'Coastal Farmhouse' style home. High ceilings and parquet flooring create an inviting atmosphere, complemented by French doors that open to breathtaking views of a spring-fed waterway, paperbark forest, and lush green paddocks where horses graze contentedly. Nestled on one of the last large private landholdings in central Byron, this property boasts endless riding and walking trails that wind through peaceful waterways, pockets of forest, and grassy expanses. A tidal river flows through the property, meandering its way to the nearby Belongil Beach, creating a haven for wildlife, including Pademelons, Kingfishers, wallabies, Goannas, and echidnas. The property serves as a refuge for protected wildlife and flora, creating a perfect blend of comfort and natural beauty. Create your own memories in this open-plan oasis, perfect for precious family gatherings and epic celebrations with friends. The deep verandah overlooks the property's scenic beauty, setting the stage for moments that last a lifetime. In addition to its prime location just 8 minutes from Byron's town centre, this property stands as one of the last large private landholdings. Explore riding and walking trails through serene waterways and lush forests, encountering an abundance of wildlife and pristine natural features. Moreover, the property holds exciting development potential, opening doors to Equine and Agritourism possibilities for income generation. Seize the opportunity to make this Coastal Farmhouse your home—a rare blend of luxury, nature, and development potential in the heart of Byron. Contact us today to schedule your private viewing and embark on a journey to a life of absolute privacy and natural beauty!