Architecturally designed to embrace all the fundamentals required to make a truly functional family home, this exquisite residence brings together the appeal of multiple living zones and spectacular poolside entertaining from its elevated position in a quiet cul-de-sac. Incredibly private beyond its verdant front garden, the home's appealing dimensions lead from the entry foyer through to a splendid formal lounge and adjacent dining room where a gas log fireplace is complemented by a wall of windows that showcases the sparkling solar-heated in-ground pool. Flowing effortlessly over stylish slate tiles, the well-equipped kitchen, meals and family zone incorporates stone benchtops, glass splashbacks, stainless steel appliances including an oven, steam oven and gas cooktop, integrated Asko dishwasher plus breakfast bench, spilling out onto a wide balcony where you can watch the sun rising through the trees whilst enjoying your morning coffee. A magnificent poolside alfresco is perfected by a tranquil pond, while the huge downstairs rumpus room is complemented by access out to a second covered entertaining zone and backyard with lush lawn and pretty gardens. Excellent family accommodation comprises four robed bedrooms; three with large desks plus a master suite with balcony access, walk-in-robe and spacious dual vanity ensuite with bidet, supplemented by a study/5th bedroom, family bathroom, second bathroom, powder room, separate toilet plus laundry with clever heat cupboard and workbench fitted with drawers. Furthermore, the home enjoys the benefits of a cellar, ducted heating, split system air conditioning, high ceilings, security alarm, ducted vacuum, 17,000L water tank, excellent storage (cupboards, storerooms and under house storage) plus an oversized double garage with work space and internal access. Nestled on a 1033sqm approx. allotment, walking distance to HE Parker Reserve, Dandenong Creek Trail, Heathmont Village shops, restaurants, cafes and trains. Within close proximity to a plethora of quality schools, including Heathmont East Primary School, Heathmont College, Aquinas College and Tintern Grammar, as well as being only a short drive from Eastland Shopping Centre plus Eastlink.
