This delightful entertainer's home is situated on a generous 789msq lot within a coveted pocket of Carine and is a perfect blend of suburban tranquillity and urban convenience. Originally a builder's family home, this house was built to last with only two owners since it was expertly crafted in 1972. From the moment you enter, you'll be captivated by the beautiful light and exquisite retro features, including original tiling and tinted glass window detail throughout. Be greeted by an arched hallway leading to a spacious lounge, featuring a gas fireplace, exposed brickwork and an additional entrance to the gated front courtyard. The dining space has ample room for entertaining and flows onto the kitchen, complete with a breakfast bar and plentiful storage space, this open plan layout encourages family gathering and memorable moments. Glass doors effortlessly connect the living area to the large, well laid out backyard, facilitating seamless indoor/outdoor living. Take advantage of the grand alfresco overlooking the huge pool, set alongside an expansive lawn and multiple relaxation areas, this outdoor haven promises to be the focal point for many years to come. Retreat into the master bedroom, and enjoy the lush north facing views out to the backyard, offering a private sanctuary. Each of the generously sized bedrooms provide ample space for relaxation, one featuring mirrored wall to wall wardrobes for convenient storage and another boasting its own ensuite. The family bathroom features a stand-alone bath and shower. Adding to the convenience, a separate WC is tucked away off the spacious laundry area with direct access to the backyard. Whether you seek immediate occupancy or envision renovating to customise the space, this property offers endless opportunities.
