With magnificent established gardens offering plenty of privacy, this is your rare opportunity to purchase a classic Tatura home full of character and class and backing directly on to the 18th fairway. With spacious living and dining, timber kitchen and a large private front yard and alfresco. The master bedroom includes a built in robe plus a walk through robe to the ensuite. The bedroom wing features floor to ceiling glass windows capturing the stunning garden, natural light and views out to the golf course. Ducted floor heating plus split systems at both ends of the home, external brick storage room with power plus additional home office with more storage. Just a minute walk to Hill Top Clubhouse, this is the perfect home and position for a downsize or to invest.
