Meticulously renovated and offering endless entertainment potential, this five-bedroom property is ideally positioned in Annerley. Set over two generous levels, this home boasts a huge deck allowing you to combine the indoors and outdoors for balmy summer nights. The stunning modern kitchen features an island bench and pendant lighting, whilst overlooking the large living space. With an expansive floorplan set across two levels, this home offers five bedrooms with built-in robes and two contemporary bathrooms. Seamlessly combining character features with modern convenience, this extensive renovation has left no detail untouched. As this home is set on a surprisingly generous block by inner-city standards and has a fully fenced yard, pets will be considered on application. Additional extras with this home include a kitchenette downstairs, air-conditioning and a single lock-up garage. Located on the fringe of the city with local cafes and shopping close by, this is an enviable spot and a luxurious property.
