This beautiful home has had a complete internal renovation to the highest of standards, with quality appliances and furniture throughout. Situated in popular Lindisfarne with panoramic views, close to parks, walking and bike tracks, schools and all other amenities, yet within an easy commute to the CBD. Accommodation is spacious, light and airy with a flexible floorplan to suit your needs. From the moment you enter you really will appreciate the warmth and ambience this home exudes. Sit and relax in the living room with its lovely timber flooring, electric fire (no mess) plus there is ducted heating, whilst taking in the spectacular water and mountain views. The sleek and stylish kitchen is fully equipped with brand new appliances, dishwasher, wall oven, glass cooktop, microwave and a pantry. There are four good sized bedrooms, the main has an ensuite. There is also an office plus a very comfortable second living area. The family bathroom is pristine and features a luxurious deep bath, separate shower, vanity and a toilet. An additional powder room is great for your visitors. The laundry has a front loader washing machine and a dryer. NBN connected, single garage plus off street parking. Gardener included. This lovely home would ideally suit those seeking a quality fully furnished rental in a highly sought after location. Private inspections are available.
