Nestled in a quiet cul de sac location, 65 Tallow Wood represents a backdoor oasis in an inner city location. Upon entry you are greeted by the sweeping open plan layout and high ceilings - This is just the beginning. The large block size is used effectively in the layout of the house blending open plan living and formal dining/family room along with the separation of the bedrooms. Fit, finish and storage is exceptional throughout whilst the A/C will keep you cool in the summer months. Cook up a storm in the kitchen and take it outside to the spectacle of the property - An absolute entertainers delight. The fully fenced property allows pets on application & the low maintenance lifestyle is complemented with pool maintenance, gardening & solar panels. With Carindale & Garden City along with many prestigious schools at your fingertips whilst being able to retreat to a relaxing sanctuary this is a fantastic example of great inner city living.
