Experience living in the heart of Seddon with this maintained two-story three-bedroom haven, serenely placed on a quiet, tranquil street. Cleverly maximizing the use of space, this gem offers peaceful retreats with bedrooms residing upstairs, undisturbed from the bustle of the lower level. The upper floor plays host to a well-appointed bathroom, granting convenience for the bedrooms, while on the lower level, an additional toilet and a separate laundry is there for practical living. Taking centre stage downstairs, the interconnected kitchen, dining and large living room offer seamless transitions between spaces, accommodating dinners to celebrations alike. Further expanding your living area, relax in the attached 6-metre sunroom inviting an abundance of natural light during every season. Secure off-street parking is available for a convenience, accompanied by an additional garage space that comfortably accommodates a second car. Tiled floors can be found throughout the property and air conditioning on both levels ensuring a comfortable climate year-round. Strategically situated, you'll enjoy being a casual stroll to Middle Footscray Train Station, a walk to schools and a mere kilometre from the bustling Footscray market, combining quiet suburban living with urban accessibility. Victoria Street, a cultural hub of cafes and culinary delights, is literally just around the corner, providing an array of dining options. This ready-to-move-in home holds potential for personalised renovations to match your unique style. Step inside and step up your living game!
