This 1.3 hectare block is the last one of this subdivision. Ideal block for building your new family home, this position will give you the serenity of rural living whilst being only 35 minutes from the Glenorchy CBD. This block has water to the site and a temporary power box is in position ready and waiting to start building your new home. With the Brighton community growing at a fast pace and the new high school that is being built could not have been timed better. Whoever buys this block of land should be confident that their investment would be sound. Give Laurie a call today to book an inspection.
