This reflection of mini house (55 sqm/approx) designed by noted architect William Pitt and built by theatrical entrepreneur George Coppin in 1883, Gordon House is a veritable oasis oozing period charm with exposed brick work. The symmetrical facade is derived from Gothic, Romanesque & renaissance architectural styles. Located at the Paris end of town the building is surrounded by theatres, cafes and restaurants all at your doorstep. This property is offering double glazed throughout the separate living room and master bedroom, second bedroom with a wardrobe and sparkling central bathroom. The building offers a calm central courtyard, outdoor heated pool and cafe. If you are looking for a City pad you would be proud to call home or an investor looking for a secure quality investment in one of the best known heritage buildings in Melbourne, then you must pencil this in for an inspection.
