Located in a popular and convenient position in Yamanto with space and quiet yet so handy to local amenities and the Cunningham Hwy, this home makes a super investment or first home. Featuring spacious open-plan living areas that flow through to the large and well-appointed kitchen and out to the all-weather rear al fresco area at the rear - this is a home that makes for comfortable family living and entertaining with ease. With high ceilings throughout, and a clever layout, including three bedrooms (each with built-in robes) along with ensuite and family bathroom (with separate shower and tub) the home offers quality light and space that makes modern family living just flow. The low-maintenance fenced yard and lock-up garage (with remote opener) plus other extras such as split system air conditioning, ceiling fans and security screens make this home a complete package. With great tenants (through to Jan 25) this is a ready-made investment for the shrewd investor or owner occupier - buy now at 2024 prices and enjoy for years to come!
