Perfectly positioned in the heart of Gables, yet another parcel of land sold off-market by Sarab Dhanjal! Sarab is highly sought-after as both a seller's & buyer's agent given her rare combination of architectural & design expertise as well as tenacity in locating & securing premium land for her buyers and being a trusted technical advisor on re-zoning and residential development. In this case, Sarab took over the sale of this land after multiple unsuccessful months on the market by another local agent. Another good news story! Looking for a new agent?
