Introducing this remarkable property nestled on a 971 sqm parcel of land, boasting a large home office or 4th bedroom that adds versatility and convenience to your lifestyle. With a captivating blend of historical charm and modern conveniences, this architectural gem dating back to the early 1840s offers a unique glimpse into the past, evoking a sense of nostalgia and heritage that sets it apart from others. From the moment you lay eyes on the property, you'll be enchanted by the timeless elegance exuded by its facade. The exterior showcases features prevalent during the 1840s, including a traditional roofline and period-specific detailing, serving as a reminder of the property's long and storied history. Step outside, and you'll discover a private oasis beckoning you to unwind and revel in the natural surroundings. The spacious outdoor area provides a perfect setting for entertaining, featuring a well-appointed patio or garden space where you can host gatherings or enjoy peaceful moments. The expansive yard opens up endless possibilities for outdoor activities, whether you envision adding a swimming pool or creating a thriving garden sanctuary. Convenience is at your doorstep, with a short walk to the nearby bus stop that effortlessly connects you to Beecroft station. This prime location offers convenient access to prestigious educational establishments such as Barker College and MLC in Burwood, making commuting a breeze. For families seeking top-tier primary education, you'll rejoice in the property's close proximity to Beecroft Primary School. With its exceptional track record for excellence and one of the highest rankings among primary schools in Sydney, this esteemed institution provides a solid foundation for young minds to thrive and excel. In addition, Cheltenham Girls High School, a prestigious and highly regarded school known for its outstanding education for young women, is also within close proximity. This further enhances the property's appeal, providing families with exceptional educational opportunities for their children. Experience the fusion of historical significance, modern comfort, and convenient location in this extraordinary property. Don't miss this opportunity to own a piece of history and create a lifetime of cherished memories. "All information contained herein is gathered from sources we deem to be reliable.
