Looking for a home with room to move and zones for all age groups. Well, look no further. A large entrance greets you as you open the front door showing the open plan living. Various rooms can be closed off to make for peace, quiet and privacy. We present to you this large spacious family home that offers three living spaces, a theatre room and office space. Add to this four generous bedrooms, three with built in robes and main with WIR. The ensuite offers a bath as well as shower so escaping from the family for a relaxing bath is something to look forward to. The kitchen in the centre of home also has room for many hands to work together and be able to feel a part of all things happening around you. Invite a crowd over and entertain them inside and out. Family room opens out onto an undercover entertainment area, well protected from the elements. Room for the swing set and the trampoline. New fences have been done on both side of the property and enclose this 760m² block. So not only does the house size surprise you the land around the house will too. This pocket of Clifton Springs boasts high calibre homes up on a hill. Still close to all amenities required for your daily living, be that shopping, schools, medical centres and an array of cafes and restaurants for that catch up with friends and family. Inspections available by private inspection or open for inspection.
