Quintessentially Red Hill with its charming weatherboard form and a setting amongst nature, this charming 3-bedroom home showcases classic character and is only moments from village shops and the Red Hill Trail and walking distance from a vineyard. Polished timber floors, sash windows and vintage decorative features define the adaptable interior, warmed by a wood combustion heater in its lounge, separate from a kitchen with a 900mm gas cooker and dishwasher and a versatile dining room with a French door parting to the entertaining deck edged by nature. The three-bedroom accommodation is wonderfully zoned and spacious, promoting absolute comfort in the main bedroom with an ensuite, walk-in robe and a leafy outlook through a pretty bay window. Additional features include reverse-cycle air conditioning, Nobo electric panel heaters, an under-house workshop and storage area, covered wood storage, and a single carport with additional off-street parking. Perfect as a weekender, holiday let, or a permanent hilltop getaway where cosy winters and sun-dappled summers become the best part of every day, it sits moments from the Red Hill-Merricks Trail, Red Hill Village shops, award-winning hinterland wineries, beautiful bay and ocean beaches, and easy city trips via the Mornington Peninsula/Eastlink Freeway network.
